State Legislature to commend Hawaii Five-0

They say "if it ain't broke, don't fix it." Well, it wasn't broke but they did make it better, engaging a new era of viewers and showcasing the beauty of the islands as never seen before.

CBS' Hawaii Five-0 took the beloved police procedural drama set in the picturesque backyard of Hawai'i, and updated the show's brand appeal with a new generation of fast-paced, high-action, eye-seducing, crime-fighting quartet. On Thursday, March 31, 2011 at 12-noon in the House Chamber, The State Legislature will honor representatives from CBS, the show's producers, cast and crew on the global success of Season One.

Honorees include Senior Vice President of Current Programming for CBS Glenn Geller, Executive Producer Peter Lenkov, Co-Executive Producer Paul Zbyszewski, Co-Executive Producer and Director Brad Turner, Producer and Co-Unit Production Manager Jeff Downer, cast members Alex O'Loughlin (Steve McGarrett) and Daniel Dae Kim (Chin Ho Kelly).

"While some may have had their doubts about bringing back this iconic series," said Rep. K. Mark Takai (District 34 - Aiea, Pearl City), "It really was a win-win for everyone involved-especially our local film and television industry. The success of the new series tells other production companies that Hawaii is a good place for film and television ventures."

In its first season, Hawaii Five-0 led with notable rating recognitions. The highly anticipated pilot episode was watched by over 17-million viewers and on January 23, 2011 Hawaii Five-0 picked up its highest ratings to date, with the fifteenth episode of the first season drawing 20.95 million viewers. (Source: Nielsen Galaxy Explorer. As dated. P2+, L+7 000s)

For his portrayal of New Jersey transplant, devoted father, and McGarrett's partner in crime and crime-fighting, Detective Danny "Danno" Williams, Scott Caan was nominated for a 2011 Golden Globe Award for Best Performance by an Actor in a Supporting Role in a Series, Mini-Series or Motion Picture Made for Television.

At the 37th People's Choice Awards on January 5, 2011, Hawaii Five-0 won "Favorite New TV Drama." Shot entirely on-location, Hawaii Five-0 has brought the flavors and stunning backdrop of the Hawaiian islands to viewers across the country and the world - in over 200 international markets. Locals here and abroad look forward to new episodes (CBS, Mondays 10/9 ct) to spot their favorite hangouts and maybe even their friends and family as extras.

"In the words of the late James MacArthur," Takai said. "I, too, am heartened to see the legacy of this popular cultural icon, preserved and perpetuated in the hands of the terrific people now at the helm."

Hawaiian revolutionizing check-in process at Honolulu

In what Hawaiian Airlines is calling one of its most significant customer-oriented initiatives to date, the company is completely redesigning its ticket lobbies at Honolulu International Airport, a move that will revolutionize the speed and convenience of its check-in process.

Mark Dunkerley, Hawaiian's president and CEO, commented, "Hawaiian is bringing a dramatic transformation to the check-in process at our Honolulu hub that Hawaii's residents and visitors alike will find to be a faster, easier and superior experience. We have made it a priority to provide a standard of service that leads the airline industry and this new lobby design is a quantum leap forward from the traditional check-in process that travelers are used to."

The redesigned lobby will be striking in appearance and the results will be immediate in reducing wait times for customers – especially during peak traffic periods. Hawaiian is removing its traditional ticket counter lobby configuration at Honolulu International Airport and replacing it with six circular, check-in "islands" in the middle of Hawaiian's two check-in lobbies in Terminal 2 at the airport, four in Lobby 2 and two in Lobby 3

Each check-in island features eight, agent-assisted, self-service check-in stations that can be used to check in for any scheduled interisland, mainland or international flight on Hawaiian.

The innovative, free-flowing floor plan eliminates one of three check-in steps and also removes the limitation of having designated queues for various destinations, meaning customers entering the lobby will be able to go to any of the new 48 self-service check-in stations that are available, cutting peak period wait times by up to 75 percent.

Each check-in station will be equipped with state-of-the-art technology that allows customers to complete the check-in process for their flight, including the weighing of luggage, payment of any fees for upgrades and other services, and printing of destination luggage tags with assistance from Hawaiian's customer service agents.

Customers will then place their checked luggage onto a single conveyor belt for inline U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) inspection, TSA screening and loading onto their flight. This new process will eliminate the current requirement to have luggage being checked to destinations outside Hawaii pre-screened by USDA before starting the check-in process.

Hawaiian's new lobby design also provides designated service areas that will give customers a place to re-pack their luggage and carry-on items if necessary, or to receive additional assistance from Hawaiian's customer service agents.

With the removal of the existing ticket counters, Hawaiian's customers will have more control over their check-in process, and its customer service agents will be free to move about the lobbies and provide more personal assistance alongside customers checking in for their flights.

The new design is the result of two years of industry research and motion studies conducted by Hawaiian to find a solution to long lines and bottlenecks during busy periods and speed up the check-in process.

Hawaiian expects to complete the $6-million self-funded transformation of both lobbies in June.

Hilton Hawaiian Village Beach Resort & Spa's Bali Steak & Seafood Restaurant named AAA Four Diamond Restaurant

Bali is the only Hawaii restaurant to receive the award for 22 consecutive years

Bali Steak & Seafood Restaurant, the culinary landmark at the Hilton Hawaiian Village^o Beach Resort & Spa, has been named a Four Diamond Restaurant by AAA Hawaii for an unprecedented 22nd consecutive year. No other restaurant in Hawaii has received that distinction, and there are only a handful of restaurants with such a distinction across the United States.

“The AAA Diamond rating system measures upscale dining establishments and lodgings which more than 50 million-plus AAA members rely upon for their travel decisions,,” said AAA Hawaii Regional Manager Diane Peterson. “We congratulate these hospitality professionals who offer high caliber service, hospitality and care to their guests in accommodations that are beautiful, clean and comfortable.”

More than 51 million AAA members and the public depend on the hotel and restaurant Diamond ratings in the AAA TourBook[®] to help them with their travel decisions. The award signifies that a hotel or restaurant met AAA's objective rating criteria and levels of excellence during an unannounced inspection.

Bali Steak & Seafood in the Rainbow Tower offers a menu that includes USDA prime meats on its menu, plus an extensive wine list. The restaurant has hosted a number of celebrities and heads of state in the past. Bali Steak & Seafood Restaurant is open Tuesday through Saturday and reservations can be made by calling the resort at (808) 949-4321 and asking for dining reservations.
