Huge turnout at first Sunset on the Beach

The first Sunset on the Beach of 2010 featuring the world premier of the final season of the hit ABC series “LOST” was a huge success this past weekend. A crowd of about 15,000 fans and supporters turned out to catch a glimpse of the LOST cast and enjoy the festivities associated with Sunset on the Beach.

Fans were not disappointed.

LOST producers and 14 members of the ensemble cast were not only present for the premier but very accommodating – signing autographs and posing for photos with their fans. The weather was perfect and the crowd loved watching the first hour of a two-part season premier episode on the big screen set up on Waikiki Beach.

As one fan said ... It was so cool to watch it on a big outdoor movie screen with the sound of the waves in the background, and thousands of cheering fans. Afterwards they gave everyone a free t-shirt that says "Lost The Final Season 2010."

"It's a bit sad to see this popular TV series begin its final season," said Rick Egged, WIA President. "On the other hand, LOST has demonstrated how successful a Hawai'i-based series can be."

The red-carpet cast and crew party at Wolfgang's Steakhouse was the place to be in Waikiki after the event.

Mahalo to ABC Television for sponsoring the first Sunset on the Beach event.

Cecilio & Kapono to headline “Island to Island for Haiti” benefit concert

An outpouring of community support will allow 100 percent of the proceeds to support the victims of the Haiti earthquake

Hawaii legends Cecilio & Kapono will be joined by Amy Hanaiali'i, Jimmy Borges and Ledward Kaapana at a benefit concert at Hilton Hawaiian Village on Friday, February 12. The artists are contributing their performances to raise money for the victims of the Haiti earthquake of January 12, 2010.

“Island to Island for Haiti” will feature an evening of island entertainment under the stars at resort’s lagoon-front Great Lawn, complemented by food samplings provided by area restaurants and hotels. The non-stop entertainment also will include Raiatea Helm, Taimane Gardner, Afatia Thompson and the ladies and gentlemen of Tihati Productions. Doors open at 5 p.m. and the evening will climax with a spectacular fireworks display at 8 p.m.

A suggested donation of $20 will be collected at the door and food booths will serve samplings for just $3 a plate. Beer, wine, water and soft drinks will be priced at just $3 each. One hundred percent of the proceeds will go to the American Red Cross Haiti Relief and Development Fund.

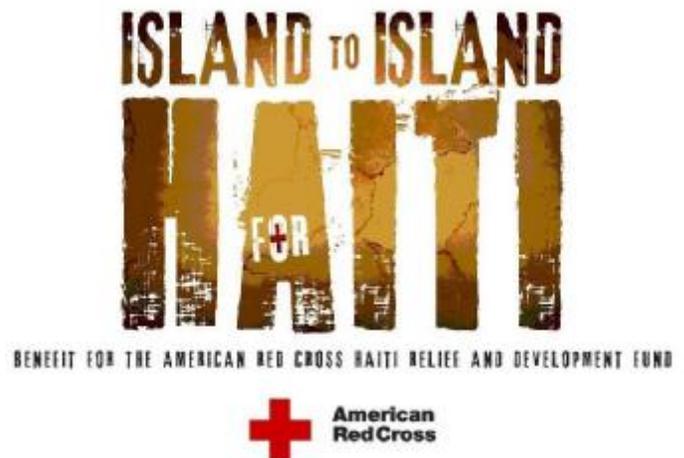

The benefit concert was the brainchild of Jerry Gibson, area vice president of Hilton Hawaii, who personally made calls to fellow hoteliers to join the effort. Participating with food stations will be Halekulani, Hilton Waikiki Prince Kuhio, Hyatt Waikiki, Kahala Hotel & Resort, Marriott Waikiki, Moana Surfrider-A Westin Resort, Sheraton Waikiki, Sheraton Princess Kaiulani, The Royal Hawaiian and Hilton Hawaiian Village.

“It certainly has been difficult to hear the tragic stories emanating from Haiti. Each reported incident is one of horror, hopelessness and grief,” said Gibson. “I felt that we should and could do something as a community to help out this ravaged island,” he continued.

In addition to the hotels, other local companies donating products and services include: Anheuser Busch, Audio Visual Technologies, Bates-Lee Advertising, Clear Channel Radio, Coca Cola Bottling Company, Cox Radio, Electric Pencil, Group 70 International, Hale Koa Hotel, Hawaii Explosives & Pyrotechnics, Inc., Hawaii Prince, Hilton Grand Vacations Club, Hookipa Enterprises, Honolulu Advertiser, Honolulu Star Bulletin, Honolulu Refuse Company, International Convention and Event Services, Jet Graphics, Kona Brewing Company, Mary Charles & Associates, Premium, Inc., Sprint Hawaii, Team Clean, Southern Wine and Spirits, Tihati Productions and Waikiki Beach Activities.

Tickets will be available for purchase beginning February 8 in the Hilton Hawaiian Village’s main lobby or can be purchased at the door. Validated self-parking will be offered at a nominal $5 fee in the Hilton’s garage and also at Hale Koa Hotel across the street. For further information visit www.hiltonhawaiianvillage.com/haiti.

Pacific Beach Hotel offers indoor Snuba at the Oceanarium

Safe, Easy, No Weather Worries and The Fish Are Guaranteed

The Pacific Beach Hotel is the first hotel in Hawaii to offer Snuba – a combination of snorkeling and scuba diving – at its world famous three-story indoor Oceanarium.

The Oceanarium snuba experience makes it easy for first-timers because no certification lessons are necessary, convenient because it is right across from Waikiki Beach on Kalakaua Avenue, and safe because there is never a worry about rough water or bad weather conditions.

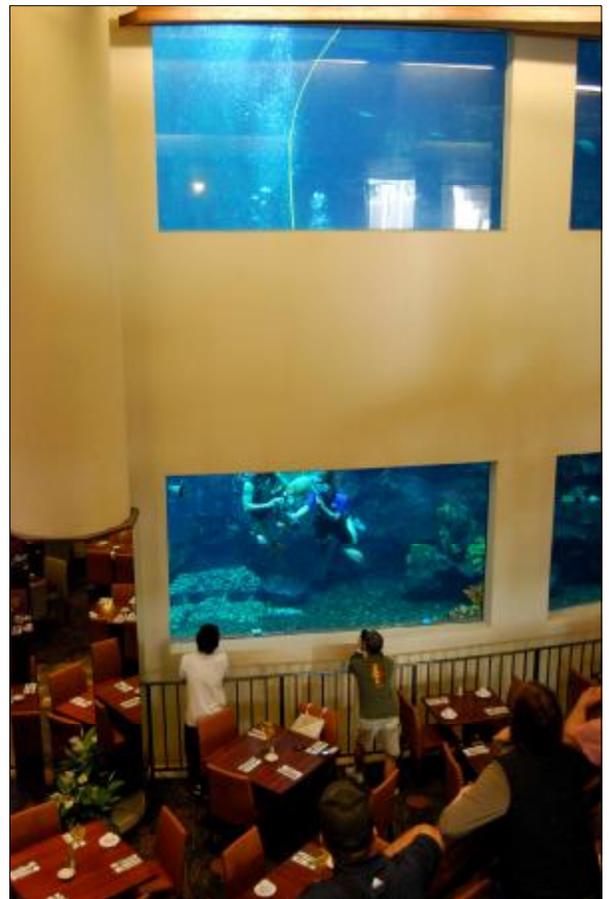

The Oceanarium at the Pacific Beach Hotel is a 280,000-gallon aquarium with more than 450 fish and ray and 72 different species making the snuba experience a guaranteed success. Only two guests dive at one time accompanied by an experienced guide for about 20 minutes.

The cost for Pacific Beach hotel guests is $45 until March 31 and for non-hotel adventurers is $60. The dives begin every 30 minutes and are scheduled Monday through Saturday from 9:00 a.m. until Noon and 2:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m.

Snuba is as easy as snorkeling because the diver does not need an air tank but breathes through mouthpiece regulator. Divers can roam to a depth of 20 feet in the Oceanarium.
