

Official Pro Bowl Block Party at Royal Hawaiian Center

Pro Bowl Trophy Displayed at Wolfgang's Steakhouse by Wolfgang Zwiener

Come down to Royal Hawaiian Center on Saturday, January 29 from 6:00 to 10:00 p.m. to enjoy the Official NFL Pro Bowl Block Party with Royal Hawaiian Center. Celebrate with free entertainment at the Center's Hawaiian stage, the first stage as you come down Kalākaua Avenue near the intersection at Royal Hawaiian Avenue. Randy Hudnall, deejay from Hawaiian 105 FM, will emcee the event's festivities.

See the trophy first-hand at Wolfgang's Steakhouse at Wolfgang Zwiener, on Level 3 of Building C (the Cheesecake Factory end of the Center). The trophy will be on display for one week, starting from January 22. On January 29 the trophy will be taken by limo to Aloha Stadium to be awarded to the winner of the 2011 Pro Bowl. A selection of Pro Bowl players, cheerleaders, and team mascots will also be in Waikiki enjoying the Block Party.

In honor of the Pro Bowl Block Party, Royal Hawaiian Center will also be hosting its Royal Grove Beer Garden. Enjoy the Official Pro Bowl Beer, Coors Light. Blue Moon beer will also be served along with a variety of red and white wines. A portion of the proceeds will go to benefit the Waikiki Improvement Association. Shop or dine during the Pro Bowl Party and enjoy validated special event $5 parking. Visit Lei 'Oahu Guest Services to receive special event validation.

6:30 p.m.

Hālau o ke 'A'ali'i Kū Makani, led by Kumu Hula Manu Boyd, opens up the NFL Pro Bowl Block Party with traditional hula, part of Royal Hawaiian Center's weekly series, hula kahiko at Helumoa. The hālau (hula school) has consistently placed well in hula competitions including the Merrie Monarch Festival in Hilo. Manu, a graduate of Robert Cazimero's Hālau Na Kamalei, started his own school in 1997.

7:10 p.m.

Ku'uipo Kumukahi and the Hawaiian Music Hall of Fame Serenaders perform their Aloha Friday shows weekly in The Royal Grove. Kumukahi is a multi-Nā Hōkū Hanohano award winner, and currently presides over the Hawaii Academy of Recording Arts. Band members include Joe Winchester, Isaac Akuna, and Kimo Stone.

8:10 p.m.

Kaiholu is led by Hanale Ka'anapu, known in the local music industry as a sound and lighting engineer. In 2009, Kaiholu won the prestigious Ka Himeni Ana Hawaiian music competition, from which many of Hawai'i's top groups were launched. Mahealani Stillman, Trax Enos and Al Rowland round out the quartet.

9:10 p.m.

Kainani Kahaunaele, former female vocalist of the year Nā Hōkū Hanohano award winner, brings her sultry stylings and Hawaiian language expertise to Waikiki in a rare appearance. Originally from Kalihiwai, Kaua'i, Kahaunaele now lives in Hilo where she teaches olelo Hawai'i (Hawaiian language) at the University of Hawai'i at Hilo. She performs with Shawn Pimental, Kuhio Yim and Alike Kalauli.

The Center is open from 10:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. daily. For more information, call Lei 'Oahu Guest Services at (808) 922-2299 or visit www.RoyalHawaiianCenter.com.

Royal Hawaiian Center has the largest garage in the heart of Waikīkī with 10 levels of parking and more than 600 stalls located adjacent to the Sheraton Waikiki Hotel. The Center's free parking promotion offers a variety of options. Hurry to take advantage of 3 hours of free parking with any restaurant validation or 2 hours free parking with any food court validation until January 31, 2011. 1 hour free parking with $1 per hour thereafter for a maximum of 4 hours for $3 for any retail validation will continue to be available. Shop or dine during the Pro Bowl Party and enjoy validated special event $5 parking. Visit Lei 'Oahu Guest Services to receive special event validation. No minimum purchase is required for validation. Validations cannot be combined.

Royal Hawaiian Center, the premier shopping and entertainment destination in Waikīkī, consists of more than 310,000 square feet along a three-block stretch of Waikīkī's famed Kalākaua Avenue. The Center has more than 100 shops and restaurants to excite every taste. Complimentary music, hula and culture classes are available in The Royal Grove. It is open daily from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. and beyond with late-night rendezvous hot spots. The Center is situated on more than six acres of prime real estate in Waikīkī and is owned by Kamehameha Schools. To learn more about the Center, visit www.RoyalHawaiianCenter.com.

Nancy Gorospe named Outstanding Employee of the Year by Hawaii Hotel & Lodging Association

Nancy Gorospe, a fountain dispenser at the Moana Surfrider, A Westin Resort & Spa, was named the Outstanding Lodging Employee of the Year today at the Hawaii Hotel & Lodging Association's (HHLA) Na Poe Paahana (the hardworking people) awards luncheon at the Hilton Hawaiian Village Beach Resort & Spa.

Gorospe was selected to receive the lodging industry's top annual award based on her "above and beyond" level of service at the Moana Surfrider.

"Nancy's co-workers and superiors greatly appreciate her willingness to go the extra mile," wrote Marisa Hallsted, outlet manager at the Moana Surfrider, who nominated Gorospe for the award. "Not only do her associates notice her demeanor, but each guest she comes into contact with does as well. She performs every task to its fullest and does so with a quality surpassed by few."

The Outstanding Lodging Employee of the Year award was one of nine awards presented at the annual statewide luncheon honoring Hawaii's top hospitality industry employees.

"We congratulate Nancy on her outstanding achievement in being named the best of the best," said Mufi Hannemann, president of the Hawaii Hotel & Lodging Association. "Today's award winners and finalists stand as a tremendous example of the thousands of dedicated industry employees that set Hawaii apart from other destinations around the world."

Recipients of HHLA's accolades are selected based on nominations submitted by their supervisors and co-workers, and are judged on the basis of outstanding and exceptional service to hotel guests, co-workers and the community. This year was the 21st annual luncheon.

Approximately 680 people attended the luncheon that was emceed by Shannon Scott and Augie T. of KCCN FM 100 radio.

Bartender from The Colony Lounge is named Food and Beverage Person of the Year

Hyatt Regency Waikiki Beach Resort and Spa congratulates Eddie Kim, Jr., bartender at The Colony Lounge, for being selected as Food and Beverage Person of the Year by the Hawaii Hotel and Lodging Association. Kim, who has worked at Hyatt Regency Waikiki for thirty-five years, is responsible for many of the hotel's signature cocktails and delivering Hyatt's mission of authentic hospitality to guests and employees daily.

"Eddie is a model for any business. He truly lives up to Hyatt's mission to provide authentic hospitality and make a difference in the lives of those we 'touch' every day. He is an exceptional employee whose aloha spirit is evident in everything he does. We are proud to have him as a member of our team," says David Lewin, general manager at Hyatt Regency Waikiki.

Kim is an artist whose Martinis, Mai Tais, and island spirits are always infused with technique, precision and passion. With a degree in Engineering, he has excelled at synchronizing flavors and temperatures to provide the ultimate in drinking experiences while demonstrating a rare ability to balance quality and quantity.

He is an incredible listener who is able to relate with guests. His empathy has led to long-term guest satisfaction and business for the hotel.

"Everything about him comes naturally because he has found his true calling in life and he has embraced it with a passion rarely seen so completely in others," adds Vince Brunetti director of Food and Beverage at Hyatt Regency Waikiki.

Aston Hotels & Resorts' Aloha Book offers experiences, adventures while stretching the vacation budget

Aston Hotels & Resorts puts Aloha in the hands of every guest with the 2011 Aloha Book of special discounts for top attractions, restaurants and retail outlets – with a value totaling over $2,500. The Aloha Book is exclusively provided at check-in to guests staying at any Aston hotel or resort in Hawaii.

According to Kelvin Bloom, president, Aston Hotels & Resorts, "We give our guests the ability to stretch their vacation dollar with our expanded Aloha Book." Over 30 new offers have been added across all islands for 2011, offering an opportunity for Hawaii's unique small businesses and activities to reach the hands of those who will enjoy them the most. The book is filled with exclusive offers for golf, spa experiences, dining and attractions, Bloom explained. "At Aston Hotels & Resorts we encourage our guests to explore the beauty of the islands and experience as much of Hawaii as they can. Our Aloha Book gives them a multitude of choices with a discount for everyone," Bloom says.

A sample of some of the Aloha Book offers for the islands of Oahu, Maui, Kauai and the Big Island include:

Outrigger Waikiki and Outrigger Reef Hotels Put a Little Love into Travel with New “It’s All About...Romance” Package

Enjoy the perfect romantic getaway with rooms starting at $329 per night, including a 50-minute lomi lomi massage and spa gift

This year, love reigns supreme at Outrigger Reef on the Beach and Outrigger Waikiki on the Beach where guests can treat themselves and a loved one to a 50-minute Hawaiian lomi lomi massage when they book the hotels’ new “It’s All About...Romance” package. Starting at $329 per night, the package invites travelers to fall head-over-heels for the relaxing beachfront properties and, of course, one another.

“Our It’s All About...Romance package ups the level of passion when getting away to one of the most romantic destinations in the world,” said Patsy Narimatsu, Outrigger Waikiki on the Beach and Outrigger Reef on the Beach’s director of sales and marketing. “After a little pampering at the Serenity Spa at the Outrigger Reef or the Waikiki Plantation Spa at the Outrigger Waikiki, guest can explore all the great nearby restaurants to reconnect over an intimate meal or savor an unforgettable moonlit stroll along the shore.”

Hawaiian lomi lomi massage is a traditional technique that was practiced by ancient Hawaiian healers and is a sacred art that has lived on by being passed down through the generations. Meant to be a connection of the spirit and the body, lomi lomi massage is a unique cultural experience that aims to heal on a physical as well as mental, emotional and spiritual level. At the end of their treatment, guests will also enjoy a small memento of their luxurious experience with a free gift from the Serenity Spa or Waikiki Plantation Spa.

Serenity Spa, an Aveda Concept Spa, is located in the Outrigger Reef on the Beach. This full-service day spa features traditional techniques of healing the body, mind and spirit. Through the use of local plant extracts, flower essences, oils and minerals once used by ancient Hawaiian kahuna (medicinal experts), the spa staff will take guests back to a world of simplicity and relaxation. With massage, facials, waxing, nail services, body treatments and salon services available, guests will instantly reach a state of serenity.

The only penthouse spa in the islands, Waikiki Plantation Spa in Outrigger Waikiki on the Beach treats guests to spectacular views of Waikiki Beach and the Pacific Ocean. Seventeen floors above the hustle and bustle of Waikiki, the two-story Waikiki Plantation Spa offers a full menu of services including massage, facials, nail services, waxing, hydrotherapy, body wraps and scrubs. Guests can also participate in private and semi-private fitness programs on the rooftop and get their heart racing alongside spacious views of the mountains and ocean. The spa also features a signature line of “Island Girl” products made from natural, hydrating native Hawaiian plants such as kukui nut, tamanu nut and macadamia nut so that guests can take a small reminder of their blissful spa experience home.

The “It’s All About...Romance” package starts at $329 per room, per night, for two persons sharing. Additional room nights can be purchased at the respective hotel’s Best Available Rate. Rates and specials cannot be combined with other offers and are subject to availability and change. Additional restrictions may apply. Hotel reservations can be made by contacting your preferred travel agent or call toll free 1-800-OUTRIGGER (1-800-688-7444) within the United States, Guam and Canada. Elsewhere call direct to 303-369-7777 (long distance charges apply). Or e-mail reservations@outrigger.com.

Hawaiian Diacritical Marks

Waikī Improvement Association recognizes the use of diacritical marks (i.e., glottal stop (ʻ), macron (ā) in place names of Hawaiʻi, such as Waikī and Kalākaua Avenue and will include them whenever possible. We also respect the individual use (or not) of these markings for names of organizations and businesses.

There will also be times when we may not have a chance to add or change the markings in all of the articles submitted and when that happens, e kala mai.

Join Reef Watch Waikīkī

Join Reef Watch Waikīkī to help monitor and identify reef fish in the Waikīkī Marine Life Conservation District. Our "Fish Watch" monitoring program uses a roving survey method developed by the Reef Environmental Education Foundation (REEF) that can be conducted with minimal training and basic snorkel gear. You will work in a team to conduct a thirty minute REEF survey to record the different species and number of each fish observed. After being trained, you can conduct a REEF survey anywhere on O'ahu (but we hope you'll help us out in Waikiki once in a while!).

- Feb. 2 (Wednesday), 9:00am-Noon: REEF Fish ID Class followed by an optional Snorkel Survey
- Feb. 20 (Sunday), 8:00am-11:00am: REEF Fish ID Class followed by an optional Snorkel Survey
- Mar. 2 (Wednesday), 9:00am-Noon: REEF Fish ID Class followed by an optional Snorkel Survey
- Mar. 19 (Saturday), 8:00am-11:00am: REEF Fish ID Class followed by an optional Snorkel Survey

REEF FISH ID CLASS: To participate in a REEF survey, you must first attend a reef fish identification training class. The class includes basic coral reef ecology and fish biology, followed by identification tips and specific information about different fish families found in Hawai'i. BRING: Sun protection and a comfy beach chair since we'll be sitting outside on the grass for an extended period.

SNORKEL SURVEYS: Snorkel surveys are open to past participants of our REEF Fish ID classes. Anyone wishing to participate should be a strong swimmer, competent snorkeler, and have his/her own mask, snorkel and fins. Each snorkel survey will last approximately 30-40 minutes and involve identifying, counting and recording fish observed in the Waikiki Marine Life Conservation District. After the snorkel, we'll gather on the beach to identify any unknown fish and share sightings of cool marine critters.

REGISTER: If you'd like to join us, please RSVP to Heather at heather@reefwatchwaikiki.org so we can provide you with additional details in advance of the survey, and so we can notify you if the event is cancelled or postponed on short notice due to weather or other unforeseen circumstances.

Calling all snorkelers!

Volunteer with Reef Watch Waikiki to help identify and count fish in Waikiki

First attend a fish identification class and then participate in a snorkel survey to learn the REEF (Reef Environmental Education Foundation) roving survey method.
