Aqua Hotels & Resorts Named to Manage The Lotus at Diamond Head

Addition adds to Aqua's growing list of full-service hotel offerings

Aqua Hotels & Resorts (www.aquaresorts.com), assumed management of The Lotus at Diamond Head on July 18 and renamed it Aqua Lotus Honolulu.

"We are pleased to be named by N2885 LLC to manage this beautiful boutique hotel," said Ben Rafter, Aqua's President and CEO. "The property has a long history as a popular hotel and restaurant and both the ownership and Aqua are committed to the renovations and upgrades needed to return it to four star status."

One of Waikīkī's first full-service boutique hotels, the Aqua Lotus Honolulu was previously marketed as the hip "W Honolulu". The hotel remains stylish with beautifully appointed Asian inspired furnishings and a relaxed ambiance.

Planned refurbishment of the guest rooms and common areas will enhance the hotel's elegant décor and vibe. "Another feature of the renovation is the refurbishment of the restaurant space and the re-opening of a contemporary new restaurant and lounge," added Rafter. "We will be finalizing our dining concepts over the next several weeks." Renovation work is scheduled to take place during the day when guests are out exploring and enjoying O'ahu.

“There will be no interruption of service as we transition reservations already in the system,” stated Elizabeth Churchill, Aqua’s VP Sales & Marketing.

“Our team is excited to be selling Aqua Lotus Honolulu. It is perfect for a number of niches including family, romance and active travelers so we will be reaching out to these markets with introductory specials to re-acquaint travelers and travel agents with the hotel.”

“The addition of Aqua Lotus Honolulu confirms the new owner’s commitment to Hawai’i and their confidence in Aqua’s performance and vision,” commented Rafter. “We are looking forward to a long and successful partnership in Hawai’i and the Pacific.”

Aqua Lotus Honolulu is a 51-room boutique hotel offering fantastic views of Diamond Head and the Pacific Ocean. Located at the east end of Waikiki, also known as the “Gold Coast” at 2885 Kalākaua Avenue, the hotel enjoys a tranquil and quiet setting along Waikiki’s main thoroughfare. Aqua Lotus Honolulu is in walking distance to the Honolulu Zoo, Waikiki Aquarium and tennis courts.

For reservations, see your preferred travel agent, book online or call Aqua toll-free from the U.S. and Canada at 1-866-406-2782. From Hawai’i, call 808-924-6543.

New Tax Added for Complimentary Accommodations

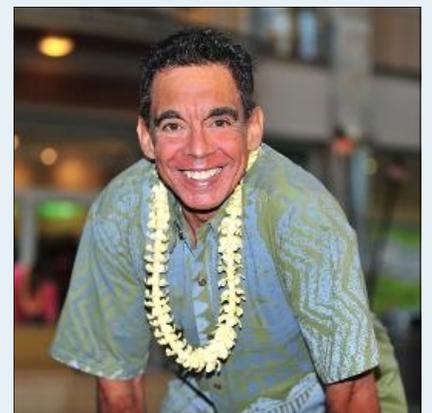

The 2011 session of the legislature added a new tax, Senate Bill Number 1186, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1 states “There is levied and shall be assessed and collected each month a daily tax of $10 for every transient accommodation that is furnished on a complimentary or gratuitous basis, or otherwise at no charge, including transient accommodations furnished as part of a package.”

When queried as to how the new tax will work the State of Hawai’i Tax Department commented; “The Department has created Form TA-30, which is a worksheet for calculating gross proceeds attributable to transient accommodations furnished at no cost. You can find it on the Department’s website Also, we are in the process of trying to meet with representatives from the hotel industry to discuss implementation of the bill. The goal is for the Department to publish some written guidance discussing what is and what is not a complimentary room subject to the tax in SB 1186.”

Jeff Apaka Returns to the Hilton Hawaiian Village

The Tapa Bar at the Hilton Hawaiian Village will be filled with the sounds of Jeff Apaka. Apaka, son of the late great Alfred Apaka, begins a weekly engagement this Sunday, July 24 at 4 p.m.

For more information, call the Hilton Hawaiian Village at (808) 949-4321.

Rarely Seen Photos of Hollywood's Golden Age Celebrities in Waikīkī to be Exhibited at The Royal Hawaiian, a Luxury Collection Resort

The Royal Hawaiian, a Luxury Collection Resort has partnered with Matson Navigation Company to present "Hollywood's Golden Age in Waikīkī" exhibit showcasing a collection of rarely seen photographs of Hollywood's Golden Age celebrities. On August 4, prized images showcasing Hollywood stars from the late 1920s to the late 1940s and their visits to The Royal Hawaiian and Hawai'i will be open to the public. The exhibit will be on display at the resort's Coronet Lounge until December 31, 2011 with no admission fee.

This rare collection of photographs features some of Hollywood's most iconic celebrities including Shirley Temple, Bette Davis, Bing Crosby, Spencer Tracy, Edgar Bergen, Harry Owens (pictured with his band), and Mickey Rooney vacationing on the shores of Waikīkī Beach. Images of newlyweds honeymooning at the "Pink Palace of the Pacific" including Tony Martin and Alice Faye, and Clark Gable and Lady Sylvia Ashley confirms Hawai'i as the top romantic destination among notable Hollywood stars.

Hawaii's own Hollywood film stars Olympic multi-medal winner Duke Kahanamoku and legendary entertainer Hilo Hattie will also be a part of the exhibit. A strong connection between Hawai'i and Hollywood starting in the mid-1920s is evident in the photographs depicting celebrities arriving at Aloha Tower on Matson passenger ships and vacationing at The Royal Hawaiian enjoying the exotic wonders offered on Waikīkī Beach. Each photograph will be presented on large canvas prints lining the walls of Coronet Lounge.

Matson Navigation Company was instrumental in the development of tourism to Hawai'i and the South Pacific. A fleet of Matson Lines cruise ships, the most famous being the S.S. Lurline, traveled from the mainland to Hawaii from the 1920s to 1960s. Matson built The Royal Hawaiian in 1927 so luxury accommodations were both available afloat and ashore. Matson photographers took thousands of snapshots of the celebrities who traveled on its ships and vacationed in Waikīkī.

Matson Navigation Company Archives encompass a vast collection of photographs and artwork from Matson Lines passenger and hotel era, 1920s to 1960s.

Hawaiian Launches Daily Osaka Flights

For the third time in eight months, Hawaiian Airlines began service to a new destination in Asia today with the inauguration of daily service between Honolulu and Osaka, Japan.

To celebrate the launch of its new route, Hawaiian treated today's inaugural flight passengers to performances of Hawaiian music, hula and a Japanese cultural dance honoring Osaka's beauty. Passengers also received fresh flower lei and participated in a traditional Hawaiian blessing before boarding the aircraft.

"Demand for our services in Japan has returned to pre-tsunami levels, and we are grateful for the enthusiastic response we are receiving from the people of Osaka. This new daily service reflects our confidence in the Japan market and in the important Kansai region in particular," said Mark Dunkerley, Hawaiian's president and CEO.

Hawaiian's daily, nonstop service from Osaka adds approximately 100,000 new air seats annually to Hawaii from Japan, the state's second-largest market for visitors, and continues an expansion into Asia that is helping to boost Hawaii's visitor industry and economy. Hawaiian introduced service to Tokyo's Haneda Airport in November 2010 and Seoul's Incheon International Airport in January 2011.

"Congratulations to Hawaiian Airlines on its launch of direct service between Honolulu and Osaka's Kansai International Airport," said Mike McCartney, president and CEO of the Hawai'i Tourism Authority (HTA). "The new direct flight from Western Japan follows two other milestone flights into the Asia market for Hawaiian Airlines, from Honolulu to Haneda, Japan and Incheon, South Korea.

"The HTA estimates the Osaka route will generate up to $120 million in visitor spending and $18 million in tax revenue annually. Together, all three routes will provide up to $350 million in visitor spending and $38 million in tax revenue annually for Hawaii's tourism economy," said McCartney. Hawaiian's new service to Osaka offers travelers in the region an authentic Hawaii travel experience. Its award-winning "Hawaii Starts Here" inflight service program showcases Hawaii's culture, people and tradition of hospitality. At the same time, it also offers new pan-Asian cuisine, Japanese entertainment options, and onboard products designed for the enjoyment of Japanese travelers.

With approximately three million residents, Osaka is a major economic and commercial center and comprises the largest segment of the Keihanshin Area, which also includes Kyoto and Kobe, and is Japan's second-most populous area with more than 18 million residents.

In addition, Osaka's Kansai International Airport is a regional hub giving Hawaiian the capability to attract a broader range of customers from Asia via convenient flight connections from other cities in Japan, China and Asia, as well as same-day ground connections from several major cities in Japan.

Hawaiian's Flight #449 will depart Honolulu International Airport daily at 2:20 p.m. and arrive at Kansai International Airport at 6:00 p.m. the next day. Return Flight #450 will depart Osaka daily at 9:30 p.m. and arrive in Honolulu at 10:50 a.m. the same day. (Osaka is 19 hours ahead of Honolulu and the flight crosses the International Dateline.)

Hawaiian will initially operate the Honolulu-Osaka flights with its 264-seat Boeing 767-300ER aircraft, before introducing its new 294-seat Airbus A330-200 aircraft on the route.

Tickets for the Osaka flights can be purchased online at Hawaiian's Japanese-language website, www.HawaiianAirlines.co.jp, and its English-language website, www.HawaiianAirlines.com, or by phone via its sales office in Japan at 03-5405-8761 and toll-free in the U.S. through its reservations center at 1-800-367-5320.

Halekulani Presents “The Art Of The Dessert”

Halekulani, the acclaimed luxury hotel in Waikiki, Hawaii, is proud to partner with iconic and legendary Imperial Hotel Tokyo to present “The Art of the Dessert” at Halekulani. Imperial Pastry Master Chef Kanjiro Mochizuki, in conjunction with Halekulani’s own Pastry Chef Mark Freischmidt, will present special dessert menus at the hotel in August, including an exclusive Halekulani Living pastry demonstration and afternoon tea with champagne, featuring some of Imperial’s best loved sweets, including tantalizingly named items like Tea Veil and Orchard.

Guests are invited to enjoy the finest creations in Japanese confectionary during the month, as Master Chef Mochizuki’s creations will be featured exclusively at the Veranda Tea Room from August 8 – 31.

Master Chef Mochizuki is an award-winning chef, recognized internationally for his skills in the kitchen. Last year, Japan’s government recognized him with a Labor & Welfare Excellent Craftsman of Today award, given to artists showing special excellence in their fields. Some of his world-class accolades include a Candy Creation Award in the 2002 American World Pastry Team Championships, in which he led the Japan Team. He continues to be a Japan Judge Representative in this contest. Also in 2002, Master Chef Mochizuki captured the Large Scale Pastry Chairman’s Award in the National Western Pastry Show, the largest pastry competition in Japan.

Halekulani’s Pastry Chef Mark Freischmidt will work in tandem with guest chef Mochizuki on this special event. Pastry Chef Freischmidt, a graduate of the prestigious Culinary Institute of America’s Baking and Pastry Program, has baked his way around the Americas, from his native Wisconsin, down to a luxury resort in Costa Rica, with many stops in between. His passion for this art drives his desire to constantly evolve the creation of pastry and breads, and his specialties are featured at Halekulani.

The Art of the Dessert Schedule of Events:

Saturday, August 6 (2:30pm – 4:30pm) – Halekulani Living Pastry Demonstration & Afternoon Tea
Marvel at a demonstration on the art of pastry making by Master Chef Mochizuki, then enjoy a relaxing afternoon tea while sampling some of his dessert creations. Inclusive champagne, special favors. Sheraton Waikiki Rolls Out The Welcome Mat for Millions of New Chinese Travelers

Starwood Personalized Travel™ Program Launches in Global Gateway Cities Catering to the Tastes and Preferences of the Outbound Chinese Traveler

As one of the world's fastest growing travel markets, with 100 million outbound travelers expected by 2015, China will play an outsized role in global travel within the next decade. To prepare for this growing force of new travelers, Starwood Hotels & Resorts Worldwide, Inc. (NYSE: HOT) announced today the launch of Starwood Personalized Travel – a program of initiatives designed to serve the unique preferences of Chinese travelers. Debuting at the Sheraton Waikiki and 18 other Starwood hotels in gateway cities around the globe, Starwood Personalized Travel offers a variety of simple, yet meaningful touches that matter most to the Chinese guest, including in-room tea kettles, slippers, translated welcome materials and on-site translation services. Restaurant menus will also be made available in Chinese and feature familiar favorites like congee – a popular Chinese breakfast delicacy.

The launch of the new program coincides with the conclusion of the unprecedented month-long relocation of the company's entire Senior Leadership Team to China, and underscores Starwood's dedication to China which recently became its second-largest hotel market outside of the United States and its fastest growing. With 74 hotels in China and nearly 100 in the pipeline, Starwood is the largest operator of high-end hotels here, and will open one hotel in China every two weeks throughout 2011.

“As Chinese travelers begin to travel beyond their borders en masse, they, like their Western counterparts before them, will gravitate to the hotel brands they know from home, and with Starwood's leading footprint in China, this gives us a great advantage,” said Frits van Paasschen, president & CEO, Starwood Hotels & Resorts. “Just as our hotels in China have historically catered to American and European travelers with familiar amenities from home, now our hotels globally will provide the same services to Chinese travelers.”

“Selecting Hawaii as one of 19 global gateway destinations for the launch of Starwood Personalized Travel highlights the significant role Hawaii will play in serving the emerging China market,” said Keith Vieira, senior vice president and director of operations for Starwood Hawaii and French Polynesia. “Our properties in Hawaii have been working hard to prepare for Chinese visitors, including extensive employee training about Chinese culture and practices as well as proper business protocol in order to meet the needs and expectations of our guests.”

New Program Launches in Gateway Cities such as Honolulu

In the first phase of the program's launch, 19 Starwood hotels in gateway cities around the world, including the Sheraton Waikiki, now feature Starwood Personalized Travel with plans to roll it out across all Starwood hotels and resorts by the end of 2012. The new program, developed in partnership with Starwood's Chinese executive team, includes:

- In-hotel Chinese Specialist – From a warm welcome upon arrival to a fond farewell, an in-hotel specialist will assist Chinese guests at all participating hotels with everything from translation assistance to facilitating transportation.
- Comforts of Home – Anticipating the needs of our Chinese guests, each hotel has tea kettles, slippers, instant noodles and toiletries either in-room or available upon request.
- Translated Collateral – Upon arrival, guests receive a packet of local area information — shopping, sightseeing and key hotel information — translated into Chinese.
- Familiar Foods – Hotel restaurants have Chinese-friendly menu items like congee, noodles and rice.

“As we look to welcoming more travelers from China, we are keenly focused on delivering a resort experience that exceeds expectations at Sheraton Waikiki,” said Kelly Sanders, general manager, Sheraton Waikiki. “We are excited that Starwood Personalized Travel will help us make that next step in ensuring our guests from China feel at home and have a memorable experience in the Islands.”

Outrigger Luana Waikiki Guests Eat Up Great Deals on Summer Getaways

With the Food and Summer Fun promotion, travelers earn up to $50 for dining at Protea Café

Travelers hungry for comfortable accommodations and a good meal when in Hawaii can find that and more at Outrigger Luana Waikiki and the hotel's Protea Café when they book a studio or one-bedroom suite, now through August 31, 2011. The Food and Summer Fun promotion starts at just $139 per night with a two night minimum and guests receive a $25 dining credit upon check-in to a studio or a $50 dining credit for a stay in a suite.

"Outrigger Luana Waikiki knows that great dining enhances any vacation, so we created the Food and Summer Fun deal to let guests sample the sumptuous offerings at our Protea Café for free," said Pamela Cabrera, general manager of Outrigger Luana Waikiki. "This is just one more money-saving offer we provide to help travelers stretch their dollars in addition to our list of complimentary amenities and services."

Protea Café offers diners fresh fare for breakfast, lunch and dinner daily from 6 a.m. to 9 p.m. With its reasonably-priced dishes, guests can sample a variety of tidbits as they lounge in the boutique restaurant or order take-out meals to enjoy in their rooms.

For breakfast, Protea Café dishes up refreshing acai bowls as well as heartier options like sweet cranberry-walnut French toast and gourmet egg dishes. To accompany the morning meal, guests can order up illy coffee drinks, blended fruit smoothies and fresh-squeezed juices.

Diners enjoying Protea Café for lunch or dinner can excite their palates with favorites that span the globe. Guests can whet their appetite on appetizers like Moroccan hummas, Protea brushetta or shrimp cocktail paired with a unique lilikoi cocktail sauce. Gourmet sandwich options range from traditional French Dip with its savory roast beef and caramelized sweet onion to surprising twists like the Crab BLT or Vietnamese Crunch, featuring beef pate, char siu and Vietnamese-style sandwich toppers like pickled daikon and cucumber. Or, choose handmade thin-crust pizza of their own design or choose from specialty pizzas like the signature Protea -- with toppings of caramelized sweet onions, mushrooms, spinach and gorgonzola cheese. Pasta dishes of linguine, fettuccini and capellini pastas are topped with tomato, alfredo and white wine garlic-butter sauces to complete the savory menu.

Outrigger Luana Waikiki provides a variety of well-appointed accommodation options, including intimate hotel rooms for two, studios with kitchenettes, or spacious one- and two- bedroom suites that include full kitchen areas. All units have convenient amenities including air conditioning, televisions, alarm clock/radio, coffee maker and in-room safe for travelers' convenience.

Please visit shorgrill.com for more information about Shor American Seafood Grill or waikiki.hyatt.com for resort information.

PACRIM Marketing Group & PRTECH President Part of “Aloha Smiles Mission” Delivering Donation and Smiles Direct to Fukushima Japan

PacRim Marketing Group and PRTech president and CEO, Dave Erdman, was one of three members of Rotary Club of Honolulu Sunrise who personally delivered $29,500 to Japan as part of the “Aloha Smiles Mission.” The group traveled to Japan to give the donations to help with relief efforts for Fukushima area students in Soma City, Fukushima Prefecture, and for families with children displaced from Fukushima to Niigata Prefecture.

Soma City is a coastal fishing and farming village in a part of Japan that was hit hardest by the March 11 tsunami, and is near the nuclear reactor.

The funds raised in Hawaii by the Rotary Club of Honolulu Sunrise members were targeted to assist and support students and families in the Fukushima area. The members worked with a sister club in Niigata, the Niigata Bandai Rotary Club, to donate the first $5000 to provide displaced families with household and personal items. The members also collaborated with the Fukushima Rotary District, which assisted with identifying needs in Soma City, where there is a local Rotary Club, the Rotary Club of Soma City. The club was one of 64 in the Fukushima area, which not only had major devastation and loss from the tsunami, but also has continuing issues with radiation fears, as it is just over 25 miles from the Fukushima Dai Ichi nuclear plant.

Rotarians (Dave Erdman—second from right) deliver donation to Soma City Mayor

Rotary Club of Honolulu Sunrise member and past president Dave Erdman, Past President Allen Kamemoto, and member Masa Edamura traveled to Soma City last month and presented $24,500 to the mayor of Soma City and the Soma City Rotary Club. The donation has been specifically designated to help fund initiatives in support of the children of Isobe Elementary School in Soba City. The school is on a hilltop overlooking the coast, and stands in good condition. Below, many of the homes and businesses of Soma City are in ruins.

“We chose to donate to this school because nearly a third of the students lost family members and homes when the earthquake and tsunami struck,” said Erdman. “Relief efforts here are important, as foreign volunteers tend to not come to this area as it is located so near the nuclear plant.”

Funds will be used to provide activities and special needs, including psychological counseling for the children. In addition to presenting the mayor with donations, Erdman, Kamemoto, and Edamura met with selected students and the entire 6th grade and delivered “Tomadachi” or “Hawaii friends” T-shirts, Hawaii Macadamia nuts chocolates and cookies from Hawaii.

As part of the “Aloha Smiles” mission, meant to bring smiles to the children’s faces, the Honolulu Rotarians also taught simple English lessons and played American and Japanese games with the students. As part of the encounter, they shared the meaning of “Aloha,” and how it can help with the healing process by focusing on sharing life energy with others when saying the word.

As part of the mission, Erdman addressed 64 incoming Rotary Club presidents and president-elects in Japanese at a conference and training session in Japan. He discussed why Rotary Club of Honolulu Sunrise went to Japan and collaborated to support an initiative for school children in Soma City and the close ties between Fukushima and Japanese-Americans living in Hawaii.

Pacific Beach Hotel Appoints Leah J. Sherman to Lead Sales Team Travel & Hospitality Industry Veteran Returns to the Pacific Beach Hotel

The Pacific Beach Hotel in Waikiki announces travel and hospitality executive Leah J. Sherman has been appointed Senior Director of Sales, Domestic and International Markets. Ms. Sherman will be responsible for growing the hotel's business in Hawaii, North America and key international markets.

Ms. Sherman has held sales, operations and training positions for Pleasant Hawaiian Holidays, Princess Cruises, Marriott International and Coca-Cola Bottling Company. She also previously served as Regional Sales Manager for the Pacific Beach Hotel's parent company, HTH Corporation. Most recently, she was with Hawaii Magazine's regional sales department.

"We are very fortunate to have Leah back because she brings a multi-dimensional understanding of the Hawaii market, the North American visitor industry, combined with extensive experience in business development, marketing, consulting and building relationships," said John Hayashi, President, HTH Corporation.

"Pacific Beach Hotel has a prime location on Waikiki Beach and a wonderful staff so I'm anxious to begin telling the world about it," said Leah Sherman.

Leah spent her childhood years growing up in Lahaina, Maui. She received a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Hawaii Pacific University.

Hilton Hawaiian Village Waikiki Beach Resort Appoints David Schue as Executive Sous Chef

Hilton Hawaiian Village Waikiki Beach Resort has named David Schue as its new executive sous chef.

Chef Schue has more than 20 years of restaurant and hotel experience, and most recently served as culinary consultant for Hilton and Hilton Waldorf Astoria Collections.

Prior to consulting, he served as executive chef at the Naples Grande Beach Resort, a Waldorf Astoria Collection, which included the Naples Grande Beach Resort, the Naples Grande Golf Club, and the Edge-water Beach Hotel. Schue worked at luxury hotels such as the Boca Raton Resort and Club in Florida where he wore the title of chef de cuisine at two of its restaurants: the Club Room and 27 Ocean Blue, a five diamond, four star rated restaurant. His career has also taken him to Fort Lauderdale at the Hyatt Regency Pier Sixty-Six as an executive sous chef.

In his new position at the Hilton Hawaiian Village, he will join Executive Chef Jeffrey Vigilla in overseeing the resort's culinary operations, including restaurants, lounges, special events and catered functions.

The Hilton Hawaiian Village features 16 restaurants, lounges and bars, including the award-winning Bali Steak & Seafood Restaurant, popular beachside eatery Tropics Bar & Grill and the year-old Pronto Pickle to-go restaurant.

Aloha United Way's Society of Young Leaders in Partnership with Hard Rock Café Honolulu Collect School Supplies for Oahu's Homeless Students

The Aloha United Way's Society of Young Leaders (SYL) in partnership with Hard Rock Café Honolulu are teaming up to collect school supplies for homeless students on Oahu to help them succeed in school. The drive runs from now – August 31st at Hard Rock Café Honolulu.

Approximately every year there are 1,800 children ages 17 and under living in homeless shelters and another 1,000 that are homeless that live unsheltered in Hawaii. As a result, school supplies are much-needed items for them each year.

School supplies needed include pencil boxes/pouches, new or gently-used backpacks, highlighters, notebooks, markers, crayons, loose leaf paper, erasers, pens, folders, scissors, binders and colored pencils.

Donations of schools supplies should be dropped off at Hard Rock Café Honolulu on the corner of Beachwalk Avenue and Kalakaua Avenue in Waikiki. For directions and hours, call Hard Rock Café Honolulu at (808)955-7383.

Last year, Aloha United Way's SYL distributed more than $10,000 worth of school supplies to 400 homeless students on Oahu.

All donations will stay on Oahu and be distributed by Aloha United Way and its Society of Young Leaders.

For more information on this program, call Aloha United Way's marketing department at (808)543-2203 or email info@auw.org.

Hawaiian Diacritical Marks

Waikīkī Improvement Association recognizes the use of diacritical marks (i.e., glottal stop (ʻ), macron (ā) in place names of Hawai'i, such as Waikīkī and Kalākaua Avenue and will include them whenever possible. We also respect the individual use (or not) of these markings for names of organizations and businesses.

There will also be times when we may not have a chance to add or change the markings in all of the articles submitted and when that happens, e kala mai.

“Kokua For Japan” Nominated For VH1’s 2011 Do Something Awards
National Awards Program Set To Air Aug. 18, From The Hollywood Palladium In Los Angeles

HONOLULU – July 14, 2011 – “Kokua For Japan,” the Clear Channel Radio Honolulu benefit concert for the American Red Cross that supported Japanese earthquake and Pacific tsunami relief efforts, has been nominated for a 2011 Do Something Award. In April 2011, “Kokua For Japan” raised $1.6 million and is being recognized nationally with a nomination in the “Do Something Concert” category. The Do Something Awards, a national awards show for social action, will be hosted by “Glee’s” Jane Lynch in Los Angeles at the Hollywood Palladium and will air on VH1 on Aug. 18, at 8 p.m. Hawaiian Time. “Kokua For Japan” supporters can vote online at vh1.com until Aug. 14, at 3 a.m. Hawaiian Time.

“We are humbled and honored to be nominated for a 2011 Do Something Award and salute all the nominees,” said Chuck Cotton, Vice President and General Manager for Clear Channel Radio Hawaii. “I’m so proud of the way our local TV and radio stations, vendors, volunteers, entertainers and the people of Hawaii have come together to support the people of Japan. This was truly the ‘spirit of Aloha’ at its best.”

DoSomething.org is one of the largest organizations in the US that helps young people rock causes they care about. By leveraging the web, television, mobile, and pop culture, DoSomething.org inspires, empowers and celebrates a generation of doers: young people who recognize the need to do something, believe in their ability to get it done, and then take action. ANTEPRIMA WIREBAG Launches 2011-2012 Fall/Winter Collection

Summer Campaign starts August 10, 2011

ANTEPRIMA WIREBAG, A luxury handbag brand hand-knitted with unique and colorful cords, exclusively manufactured in Italy, announces launch of new items from 2011-2012 Fall/Winter Collection. To commemorate the new collection, ANTEPRIMA will offer a special summer campaign at both the Waikiki and the Ala Moana store beginning August 10, 2011. Customers will receive a free limited edition “Dolphin Charm” with any purchase of $550 or more.

The theme of the newest collection is “Mystic Beauty”; imagines a mysterious woman in magnificent forest. The theme turns into the warm color variation and the modern design in each item.

New Wirebag “BLOCCO”
FW Collection’s theme “Mystic Beauty” reflects warm color variations and modern design

1. 【Launch: Early August】 New Wirebag ”BLOCCO” ($504-$725)

- “BLOCCO” features a metal buckle, comes in two styles; Shoulder bag and Tote bag.
- ANTEPRIMA’s craftsmanship shines through in the details such as beautifully woven handle and chain-style trim.
- The warm color variation and the soft curvy form bring a sophisticated look to your fall/winter fashion.
